

We are excited to announce that the Waldorf Educational Foundation has awarded a grant of $15,000 to the Anthroposophical Society in America that will enable the society's national research and lending library, the Rudolf Steiner Library in Hudson, New York, to offer free one-year individual memberships to Waldorf school faculty and staff, Waldorf teacher trainees, and parents of Waldorf school students at any of the Waldorf schools and teacher training centers in the continental United States, for the period September 1, 2016, through August 31, 2017.

The Rudolf Steiner Library has 19,000 titles, with 2300 resources on Waldorf education and child development, including books, periodicals, DVDs, and audio-recordings, with multiple copies of many works available for lending. The library also has thousands of resources that support the Waldorf curriculum, including materials in the arts, history, literature and fairy tales, religion and festivals, and the sciences.

The library provides mail-order lending and research assistance to members throughout the continental USA. Research services are free for the first hour and $30/hour for additional hours. Mail-order borrowers pay postage for the shipping of all library materials. Read more about the library at <http://www.anthroposophy.org/rudolf-steiner-library.html>.

To register for your free membership please the online application form [ <https://goo.gl/o87dLr> ] or call us at (518) 944-7007.

If you have questions, please contact librarian Judith Kiely. We are pleased to be able to offer this benefit to the Waldorf community for the coming year thanks to the Waldorf Educational Foundation!
